01 Purpose of agreement

This agreement outlines the confidentiality, data protection and informed consent terms governing all counseling sessions between the Counselor and the Client.

02 Confidentiality policy

All information shared during counseling sessions is treated with the highest level of confidentiality. The Counselor agrees that:

- No personal information, discussions or records will be disclosed to any third party.
- All sessions remain private and protected.
- Confidentiality may only be set aside when necessary, in these cases:
  - Risk of harm to the Client or another person.
  - Legal obligation by law enforcement or court order.
  - Written consent from the Client.

03 Data protection & privacy

The Counselor is committed to safeguarding all client data:

- All session notes, messages and records are securely handled.
- No data will be sold, shared or used outside the counseling relationship.
- Communication via WhatsApp, Zoom or email will be handled with discretion.
- The Client acknowledges that digital platforms may carry minimal privacy risks beyond the Counselor's control.

04 Voluntary participation

The Client understands that:

- Counseling is completely voluntary.
- They may pause or end sessions at any time.
- The Counselor provides guidance, not force, pressure or control.

05 Nature & scope of counseling

- Counseling provided is emotional, relational and spiritual guidance.
- It does not replace medical, psychiatric or legal services.
- No guarantees are made regarding specific outcomes.

06 Payment & session terms
